

2H Software is a unique software development company with a large dedicated team that does more than develop software; we innovate—helping clients find the most productive, cost-effective way to build their desired outcomes.

Notable Projects

- Developed software solutions to help the Mexican stock exchanges, the CNBV, and 99% of the stock market participants file their disclosures using XBRL
- Worked with HDATA to implement a filing solution for the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission mandate for US energy companies

Custom Software Development Services

Expertise in .net development, SPA applications with angular, and managing Azure infrastructure

Design, develop, and deploy software solutions that meet your specific needs and requirements

Team of 75 highly qualified and experienced professionals

Committed to delivering high-quality products and services

Proven track record of successful projects and satisfied customers

For more information on how 2H Software can help you, contact Jeff Levy at jeff.levy@Latam Connect.us